

A PERSONAL BRAND, IN IMAGE FORM

Look like the main character online, in one afternoon.

Without being photogenic, rich, or a model.

LET'S BE HONEST

You've tried this before.

The friend with a camera. The 400 selfies. Maybe even a real photographer. You got a folder of pics, and nothing changed.

| Nobody told you the folder was never the product. It's not your fault.

WHO THIS IS FOR

One system. Every profile.

THE PROMISE

In the next fifteen minutes:

1. Why your photos haven't worked.
2. The exact system that fixes it in one afternoon.

HOW THIS STARTED

"Yo, can I get pricing for 25 edited pics?"

A real message we got this week. And the moment we realized he was asking for the wrong unit entirely.

| More pics were never going to fix his profile.

SECRET ONE

Looks, not pics.

The unit of a personal brand is the look: one location, one outfit. Fifty pics of two outfits are two looks wearing a costume of abundance.

1 location × 1 outfit = 1 look

YOU'RE PROBABLY THINKING

"More photos means more content."

Actually, three planned looks outperform fifty pics, because every look is a different day of your life. Fifty pics from one afternoon in one fit is one day, posted fifty times.

| You don't have a photo problem. You have a looks problem.

SECRET TWO

Direction beats genetics.

Nobody is photogenic unprompted. Models are directed. Every pose and angle is decided before shoot day.

| Awkward is a planning failure, not a face failure.

YOU'RE PROBABLY THINKING

"I'm just not photogenic."

[CLIENT BEFORE PHOTO]

[CLIENT AFTER PHOTO]

Ordinary guys, directed. That's the whole trick.

SECRET THREE

You don't need a life upgrade first.

Two weeks of prep brings what you already have to its peak. The archetype session picks fits you already own. Three ordinary Montreal locations read as a full life when the looks are planned.

YOU'RE PROBABLY THINKING

"I'll book it when I'm in better shape."

The shoot is the shortcut to looking like the guy who has his life together.
Not the reward for it.

SO, TO RECAP

1 The unit is looks, not pics.

2 Direction beats genetics.

3 No life upgrade needed first.

| So is there any reason your profile can't be fixed in one afternoon?

Can I take five minutes and show you exactly what working with us looks like?

THREE QUESTIONS

- | If all this did was give you three different-day looks, would it be worth it?
- | If all this did was make you comfortable in front of a camera for life, would it be worth it?
- | If all this did was give you a month of presence without changing anything about your life, would it be worth it?
